

The Bernoulli Names Tabulated

#78 of Gottschalk's Gestalts

A Series Illustrating Innovative Forms of the Organization & Exposition
of Mathematics
by Walter Gottschalk

Infinite Vistas Press
PVD RI
2002

GG78-1 (8)

© 2002 Walter Gottschalk

500 Angell St #414

Providence RI 02906

permission is granted without charge
to reproduce & distribute this item at cost
for educational purposes; attribution requested;
no warranty of infallibility is posited

GG78-2

□ the Bernoulli family produced more well-known mathematicians than any other family in the history of mathematics

□ all 13 persons listed below have Bernoulli as family name; the mathematicians are not so identified; the three leading mathematicians are Jacob I, Johann I, Daniel I

Nicolaus
1623-1708
pharmacist & spice merchant
primogenitor of the Bernoulli family
father of Jakob I & Nicolaus I & Johann I

Jakob I 1655(1654 OS)-1705
son of Nicolaus

Nicolaus I 1662-1716
painter
son of Nicolaus

Johann I 1667-1748
son of Nicolaus

GG78-3

Nicolaus II
1687-1759
son of Nicolaus I

Nicolaus III
1695-1726
son of Johann I

Daniel I 1700-1782
son of Johann I

Johann II
1710-1790
son of Johann I

Johann III
1744-1807
son of Johann II

Daniel II
1751-1834
son of Johann II

Jakob II
1759-1789
son of Johann II

Christoph
1782-1863
son of Daniel II

Johann Gustav 1811-1863
son of Christoph

GG78-6

□ the given names in five languages
of members of the Bernoulli family

English: Christopher
French: Christophe
German: Christoph
Italian: Cristoforo
Latin: Cristoforus

English: Daniel
French: Daniel
German: Daniel
Italian: Daniele
Latin: Danihel

English: Gustave
French: Gustave
German: Gustav
Italian: Gustavo
Latin: Gustavus

English: James
French: Jacques
German: Jakob
Italian: Giacomo
Latin: Jacobus

English: John
French: Jean
German: Johann
Italian: Giovanni
Latin: Johannes

English: Nicholas
French: Nicholas
German: Nicolaus
Italian: Nicolo
Latin: Nicolus